

MALT SUGAR TO THE RESCUE

Manufacture of malt sugar sirup promises not only to relieve the present shortage and prevent a future scarcity of sugar, but also to provide profitable use for the plants and machinery formerly used in the brewing of beer. This is a new sweet which has been put on a commercial basis at the psychological moment, say the specialists of the Department of Agriculture, by whom investigations of various substitutes for sugar have been conducted.

In addition to being a sweet, malt sugar sirup has a delicious flavor somewhat like that of honey, the chemists say. This quality adds to its palatableness and value as a substitute for sugar.

Malt sugar sirup has long been known to chemists, but its production on a commercial basis has only lately been undertaken with a prospect of success. Two factors have tended to stimulate its manufacture. The shortage of ordinary sugar has developed a market for substitutes, and the decrease in the use of grains for brewing has afforded plentiful raw materials.

It is announced by investigators of the Department of Agriculture that with very little change brewing plants may be devoted to the manufacture of this new sweet. Up to a certain point the process for making malt sugar sirup is identical with that of brewing beer. Evaporating plans are said to be the only additional equipment which breweries will require to become malt sugar sirup factories.

Malt sugar sirup is already being sold in large quantities to commercial bakeries and to manufacturers of soft drinks and candy. They use it instead of sugar. The wholesale price has recently been quoted at from 7 to 9 cents a pound by the barrel.

The Department of Agriculture points out that the sirup can be used in cooking, baking and home-made confections, and even in sweetening coffee, oatmeal and deserts.

SAVE, SAYS PALMER, AND LIVING COSTS WILL DROP

Describing efforts of the Department of Justice to drive down the cost of living, Attorney General Palmer, speaking before a meeting of the fair price committee, mayors of cities and state officials of Pennsylvania at Harrisburg, Pa., Friday, declared that if the people would increase their saving by 10 per cent. the cost of living would fall 20 per cent. in a brief period of time.

Mr. Palmer attacked the "buy now" campaign, declaring that "our job is to wait, both in our interest and in the interest of the nation and the world at large, that the demand may be lightened." He called upon "the plain people" to wear their old clothes a little longer, to refuse to buy until production had caught up with the demand. This, he assured the officials, was one of the principal means of ending the spectacle of "the dog chasing its tail around a circle." Unless the people themselves take this step, the attorney general said, the nation cannot expect to have anything but discontent and disorder.

YOUNG COUPLE MARRY IN LEXINGTON

Howard Mee, a prominent young farmer of near Aaron's Run, and Miss Mary Cravens, lovely young daughter of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. William Cravens, were married in Lexington Wednesday by the Rev. Dr. A. W. Fortune. After their return from their bridal trip they will be at home to their friends on Mr. Mee's farm in the county.

THE RAINMAKER BACK AGAIN

After all these years of fiction writers propounding, not so much for the advancement of science as for the entertainment of the public, countless plans to bend the will of Jupiter Pluvius to the dictate of man and successfully call down rain from the heavens, comes an Oregon aviator with claims of having turned the trick.

Furthermore, the governor of that state is reported to be planning official experimentation, in the hope of dispelling the forest fire menace. The scheme follows the same general plan used by the small boy to catch the bird. In short, it's simply sprinkling salt on a cloud's tail.

In flying, the aviator found that he often passed through partly formed clouds—zones where there was much moisture, but not enough to condense and form raindrops. Common salt will drop this moisture if dropped from high above such an air current, he declares, and clouds and rain result.

We await official confirmation.

INAUGURATION SET FOR DECEMBER 9TH

Although nothing definite has been done, the Republican county committee has begun to talk about plans for the inaugural ceremonies when Governor Edwin P. Morrow and Lieutenant Governor-elect S. Thurston Ballard take the oath of office December 9. If the tentative plans of the committee are carried out the heads of the Republican ticket will be inducted into office with the most pretentious inaugural ceremonies ever staged in this state.

Now that the election is over and it has been decided by 30,000 voters that Mr. Morrow is to be the next Governor, Democrats and Republicans alike will co-operate in formulating plans for the inaugural ceremonies. The committee to be in charge of the arrangements have not been selected.

MASON-HEABERLIN WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Lillian Mason, of near Paris, and Mr. Trocey Heaberlin, of Des Moines, Iowa, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. C. Anderson, of Brownsburg, Ind. Miss Eliza Clay Mason, sister of the bride, was bride's maid and Mr. John Marsh, of Lexington, friend of the groom, was best man. The ceremony took place in the large reception hall, which was decorated with ferns, combined with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. The bride wore a beautiful blue tailored suit with a large black velvet hat and carried bride's roses. Mrs. Will Mason, of Mt. Sterling, sang very sweetly, "I Love You Truly" and "For You Alone," being accompanied by Miss Alma Rice, who also played the wedding march. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mason, of near Paris, and has a host of friends who wish for her much happiness in her new home. Mr. Heaberlin is a very prosperous young business man of Des Moines, Iowa. After the ceremony the happy couple were accompanied to Lexington, by a few friends, leaving there for a short bridal trip before returning to their home in Iowa.

Miss Mason is the granddaughter of Mr. J. H. Mason, of this city.

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS GIVEN FOR BEST ESSAY

Through an arrangement between the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association and the Savings Division, War Loan Organization of Kentucky, prizes aggregating $500 in War Savings Stamps have been offered to the pupils of Kentucky for the best essays to be submitted to the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association in the Republic Building before December 15.

The primary purpose of the essays is to enable the child to formulate a few simple health laws which he may consciously use himself and pass them on to others.

The prizes will be awarded for the best essay written on the following subjects:

Eleventh and Twelfth Grades—"Why Should I Buy Red Cross Christmas Seals?" First prize, $100; second prize, $70, and third prize, $30.

Ninth and Tenth Grades—"What Does the Modern Health Crusade Mean?" First prize, $50; second prize, $35, and third prize, $15.

Eighth Grade—"If You Have Tuberculosis, How May You Be Cured? How May You Prevent Others From Taking It?" First prize, $50; second prize, $35, and third prize, $15.

Seventh Grade—"Is the Public Health a Necessity or a Luxury?" First prize, $25; second prize, $17.50, and third prize, $7.50.

Sixth Grade—"The Life History of the Common House Fly." First prize, $25; second prize, $17.50, and third prize, $7.50.

The pupils of all public, private or parochial schools in the State whose academic qualifications place them in the Sixth Grade or above are measured by the State course of study. No essay should contain more than a thousand words.

The county school superintendents shall choose three judges to read all essays submitted in their county. They in turn will submit the essays they choose to three judges named by the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association who will announce the winner not later than February 1, 1920.

LAND SALE

425 ACRES

BATH COUNTY LAND

I will offer for sale my farm of 425 acres, located on the Bald Eagle and Owingsville turnpike, in Bath county, about 1 1/2 miles east of Sharpsburg, on at 10 o'clock, A. M., to be divided as follows:

Tract No. 1—Consists of 100 acres. Improvements on said tract consist of a two-story dwelling with 11 rooms and bath. The lower story is built of brick, second story of frame; the tobacco barn will hold 9 acres. All necessary outbuildings. Four paddocks near the barn, with stalls in each paddock, ready for growing any stock. Two splendid cisterns at the house, also two cisterns at the barn. Very little tobacco has been raised on this tract, all of it good tobacco land; 70 acres in Blue Grass, which has not been plowed for years.

Tract No. 2—Consists of 70 acres, adjoining Tract No. 1; has a good tobacco barn; will house 10 acres of tobacco; good silo, and four-room house. Land is in a high state of cultivation, all in grass but 6 acres. Every acre tobacco land. Plenty of water.

Tract No. 3—Consists of about 135 acres, adjoining Tracts Nos 1 and 2. Has good tobacco barn, will house 10 acres of tobacco; good tenant house of 4 rooms. Never-failing water at house and on this tract. Land in high state of cultivation, all in Blue Grass but about 25 acres, and 15 of the 25 acres in meadow, only 10 acres in cultivation this year, which was plowed up blue grass last year. Every acre good tobacco land.

Tract No. 4—Consists of 118 acres. Improvements on this tract, nice residence of six rooms, been built 3 or 4 years. Tobacco barn houses 10 acres of tobacco; about 1 1/2 acres splendid orchard; well watered. This tract all in blue grass but about 30 acres, mostly blue grass that has not been plowed for a number of years. 22 acres of the 30 acres was blue grass plowed for tobacco in 1919.

The entire farm of 425 acres is well fenced. I defy any man to select as much as one acre in a place on the entire farm of 425 acres that will not raise tobacco.

The undersigned will be on the premises or will have someone there to show the farm to prospective purchasers.

Terms made known on day of sale.
